

On Fatima anniversary, Fr. Apostoli sees atheism overtaking the West

The author of an exhaustive study on the Virgin Mary's 1917 appearances in Portugal says her words are being fulfilled by the rise of aggressive secularism and loss of religious freedom in the West.

"Mary, as I see it, pointed out at Fatima that these things were going to happen," said Fr. Andrew Apostoli, a Franciscan Friar of the Renewal and the author of "Fatima For Today"

Read

more:

<http://www.ewtnnews.com/catholic-news/US.php?id=4146#ixzz1aoBkS4YA>